Teacher(s)	Mrs. Bergin, sarah.bergin@ecsd.net
Resources	Texts and technology provided by the school
Program of Studies	https://curriculum.learnalberta.ca/hs-courses/en/courses/LDC1269
Overview	Students will cultivate their creativity and communication skills to become engaged thinkers about the media they create and participate in, and awareness of their role as ethical citizens with an entrepreneurial spirit in writing and publishing. In this course, students follow their writing interests and passions and engage in opportunities to write in a variety of genres that encourage them to experiment with new ideas, concepts and processes in various communication forms and mediums. Students will create and manage their own portfolios. In the 3-credit course students will build a digital or non-digital portfolio to demonstrate skills and growth. In the 5-credit course, students will, in addition, select from their growth portfolio to create a professional portfolio that showcases their best work and assists them in marketing their skills and abilities.

Learning Outcomes

How can original texts contribute to the development of artistry?
How can students work collaboratively and alongside professional organizations to explore and apply elements of creative writing?

How can the evaluation of creative writing markets support students in refining texts?

The code NHI may be used to represent coursework that has not been handed in. It is representative of a zero. In addition, the following may appear for a student in PowerSchool instead of, or in addition to, a numeric grade:

Disclaimer A wide range of assessment information is used in the development of a student's final grade. At Archbishop MacDonald Catholic High School, individualized assessments provide specific information regarding student progress and overall performance in class. Student assessment may vary from student to student to adapt for differences in student needs, learning styles, preferences, and paces. It should also be noted that not all assignments are used to determine the final grade, and that scale factors may have been used to determine the weight of individual assignments.

Expectations Unexcused absences and/or lates are unacceptable and may have a negative effect on the grade. Missed coursework may be expected to be completed and may be scored as zero or NHI until submitted (see disclaimer).

Personal Mobile Device Standards Mobile Devices and Social Media Use:

- Personal mobile devices are to be silenced or turned off and stored in the student's assigned locker during the day, which must be locked.
- No personal mobile devices are to be used during the day except for at lunch.
- No social media is to be accessed during the school day.
- The standards for Personal Mobile Devices includes cell phones, SMART watches, earbuds, and headphones
- Non-compliance with the standards will result in consequences of a suspension or loss of privileges such as participation in school trips, or activities, sports teams, and extracurricular activities.
