Overview

The goals and objectives of the Drama 10 course are:

I – to acquire knowledge of self and others through participation in and reflection on dramatic experience.

II – to develop competency in communication skills through participation in and exploration of various dramatic disciplines.

III – to develop an appreciation of drama and theatre as a process and art form.

Course Description

Drama 10 (5 Credit) provides a basic introduction to skills and processes involved in creating and participating in theatre. The course aims to give students foundation in ensemble, movement, stage composition, voice, and character work. The first half of the course will feature smaller projects to build confidence in all these areas and encourage collaboration amongst ensemble members. During the second term, students will then advance skills developed by engaging in more in-depth projects that require engagement from multiple areas.

IB Philosophy

MAC's courses use the IB philosophy to encourage the holistic development of all students. The Learner Profile and Approaches to Teaching and Learning are used at all levels so that students develop a better understanding of curriculum objectives. This course will focus on the Learner Profile for THINKERS because we use critical and creative thinking skills to act on complex problems. Our Approaches to Learning skill will be THINKING because we emphasize skills such as reflection and critical thinking.

Assessment

The assessment plan for the course will be a balance of assessment for learning, assessment as learning, and assessment of learning. Your summative grade will be calculated cumulatively throughout the semester with the following:

Process and Performances	80%
Reflective Work	20%

Expectations

1. Regular attendance and punctuality are important for learning. If a student misses a class, it is the student's responsibility to complete any work that has been missed. Any assignments or performances missed because of an excused absence will be due upon the student's return to school.
2. Students will have specific performance days scheduled. If a student misses a performance due to an unexcused absence, they cannot receive credit for the performance. If a partner or group member is missing due to an unexcused absence, the remaining members of the group will have an opportunity to adjust their scene prior to performance.
3. Complete work is memorized, polished, and rehearsed work. Text, movement, blocking, lyrics, cues etc are to be memorized prior to performance. Incomplete work will not be given stage time in the class and will not be graded prior to being complete.

4. Your drama journal is a necessary tool in this class. Time will be given at the end of each unit for journal pages, in addition to some on-going reflection and recording. Be prepared to put time and effort into this aspect of your drama class.
5. When performing, an actor can be very vulnerable. It is very important for all class members to respect and support the work that their peers are doing. Treat your fellow class members as you yourself wish to be treated.
6. Students are encouraged to experiment and use their creativity when developing characters and stories, but there are some topics that are not appropriate or acceptable in this class. The following are not appropriate or acceptable for student creation or performance: profanity, violence, sexual innuendo, racism/sexism/discrimination of any sort, and representation of substance abuse. If a student is uncertain about the appropriateness of an idea, please discuss it with the teacher.
7. Appropriate classroom behaviour is essential in creating and maintaining a classroom atmosphere conducive to learning. Please respect your fellow students, and please respect the learning environment.
